ideas from other editors

From the Newark, N. Y. Courier-Gazette: There is a famous story about two children who set out to search for the Blackbird of Happiness. They traveled to many places over the world but they never found it. Finally, they gave up their search and returned home. To their great surprise, they found in their own back yard, the Blackbird, singing away loud and clear.

The moral of this story to Americans is that there is a real touch of magic all around us—figure it out, right in your own back yard. One of the easiest ways to discover it and explore it is by drawing a circle of any radius, using your home as the center point for the compass. Your magic can be any size—100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800, 900, 1000, 1100, 1200, 1300, 1400, 1500, 1600, 1700, 1800, 1900, 2000, 2100, 2200, 2300, 2400, 2500, 2600, 2700, 2800, 2900, 3000, 3100, 3200, 3300, 3400, 3500, 3600, 3700, 3800, 3900, 4000, 4100, 4200, 4300, 4400, 4500, 4600, 4700, 4800, 4900, 5000, 5100, 5200, 5300, 5400, 5500, 5600, 5700, 5800, 5900, 6000, 6100, 6200, 6300, 6400, 6500, 6600, 6700, 6800, 6900, 7000, 7100, 7200, 7300, 7400, 7500, 7600, 7700, 7800, 7900, 8000, 8100, 8200, 8300, 8400, 8500, 8600, 8700, 8800, 8900, 9000, 9100, 9200, 9300, 9400, 9500, 9600, 9700, 9800, 9900, 10000.

From the Webster Times, Webster, Maine: There has been a lot of excitement talk of late. Quite naturally, officials have been inundated with suggestions, plans and alternatives. Unfortunately, the average resident has neither the time nor the inclination to digest all of the proposals. We were intrigued by a simple analysis which arrived at our desk this week.

"There was a man who stood by the road and sold hot dogs. He was hard of hearing, so he had no radio. He had trouble with his eyes, so he read no newspapers. But he sold hot dogs. He put up signs on the highway telling how good they were. He stood by the side of the road and cried: 'Buy a Hot Dog, mister,' and people bought."

"So he increased his meat and bun orders . . . and he bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. Finally his son came back from college to help him out. His son said, 'Father, haven't you been listening to the radio? Haven't you been reading the newspapers?' There's a big depression on."

"Whereupon the father thought, 'Well, my son has been to college, he knows everything. He reads the papers. He listens to the radio. So the father cut down on his meat and bun orders. He took down his advertising signs and no longer bothered to stand on the highway and cry out for his hot dogs.'"

"And his hot dog sales fell almost overnight. 'You're right, my son,' the father said to the boy. 'There is no use trying to sell. We are in the middle of a depression.'"

TODAY'S Meditation

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Thursday, June 5

He was named Jesus, (Luke 2:21, Moffatt.)

ISAAC was a Chippewa Indian. He got into trouble with the law. As a result, he came into my custody for eight months.

Isaac knew only four words of English; namely, wife, son, home and Jesus—the latter learned from his Chippewa prayer book.

While with me, he was a thousand miles from his home. Since there was no one with whom he could speak his language, Isaac became depressed. Meantime, I used my efforts to get him a parole. At last his release was authorized.

How to give him the good news was now my problem. First, I arranged for his thousand-mile flight home. Then I had him brought to my office. Not having a picture of a plane, I pointed to a picture of any fleet showing some wild geese in flight. I said, "Isaac! . . . home . . . wife . . . son."

Immediately Isaac's face lighted up. He put his hands together, as in prayer. With tears rolling down his cheeks, he said "Jesus." Putting my hands together, I, too, said, "Jesus."

PRAYER: Father we thank Thee that we know "how sweet the name of Jesus sounds in a believer's ear." Give us grace so that we may be better able to help others to know the sweetness of His name. In His spirit we pray, Amen.

Thought For The Day
We ask God for so much, yet give Him so little.

SPEED AT FOOT OF MOST
HIGHWAY AUTO ACCIDENTS

The man who directs the most massive traffic safety movement in the history of the automobile says that speed "is at the root" of nearly all highway accidents.

Speaking to delegates attending the Maine Youth Highway Safety Council, Paul H. Blaisdell, director of traffic safety, Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, also praised Maine for being the first state in the nation to recognize "the tremendous potential" of the nationwide "Slow Down and Live" program as an activity for youthful drivers. Mr. Blaisdell addressed the group in his capacity as executive secretary of the Association of State and Provincial Safety Coordinators, sponsors of the annual summertime safety program.

"Needless haste the hurry psychology is at the root of 75 to 90 per cent of our highway accidents," Mr. Blaisdell said. "In the summertime this figure is definitely higher. Well over 90 per cent of our accidents result from excessive speed, speed too fast for conditions, improper passing, following too closely and failing to yield the right-of-way—all manifestations of the 'in-a-hurry' driving complex."

"You know that complex as well as I: It's the driver who wants to be first at the beach on Sunday morning and first home Sunday night. It's the driver whose impatience can't survive more than two traffic tie-ups before he's cutting out of line to gain two car-lengths. It's the driver who doesn't know that it takes a greater distance to slow a moving vehicle from 70 to 55 miles an hour than it does to bring it from 50 mph to a complete stop."

"Six years ago a small group of hardheaded realists admitted the seriousness of the 'hurry drivers' and were determined to do something about them in the summer vacation period. With these 11 officials from northeastern states the 'Slow Down and Live' program was born—founded on the proposition that the way to lick the problem was to step up enforcement against the 'hurry driver' and, at the same time, to saturate the people with publicity and promotion on speed control."

"The results of 'Slow Down and Live' speak for themselves. In 1954, it was extended to 24 states—in 1955 to the nation—in 1957 to the Dominion of Canada. This year it operates from the Arctic Circle to the Caribbean—the biggest traffic safety promotion in the history of the safety movement."

"In 1957, the program produced and distributed more than 75 million promotional items, enjoyed over 400,000 radio spots, in excess of 100,000 television public service messages, reached an audited circulation of more than 2,000,000,000 reader impression on outdoor advertising posters—and lowered the traffic death injury record from May 20 through Labor Day in the United States, in Canada and in Puerto Rico."

"We will not reach the zenith of success in this project until it would be impossible for a man to take his family on a vacation trip from Sweetwater, Texas, to Waterford, Maine, without being reminded, every day and in every way, to 'Slow Down and Live.'"

"It is this program that you are being asked to support this year. I am in that support a public relations opportunity for the youth of Maine—an opportunity to convince some doubting elders that you are not just 'talking' safety but are 'doing' safety. When you encourage an organization, a business firm, a corporation or a municipality to obtain and distribute campaign materials, you are doing a public service."

SO THEY SAY —

"Fear is playing the biggest part in this recession. I do not think it is an exaggeration to say that recession begins and ends in the Wyman-Gordon Company."

—Charles G. Mortimer, President, General Foods Corporation.

"If all government would go about reducing its own cost, as business has to in these times, and would make a real effort at correcting the discriminatory tax burden more would be accomplished than all of the proposed temporary quack remedies put together."

—Robert W. Stoddard, President, Wyman-Gordon Company.

Conservation Farming
In Oxford County

By Lyman W. Jacobson

Reclamation of the burned area in southern Oxford County takes high on the Work Plan of the supervisors of the District. Some 70 acres have been replanted during May.

Fred Walker planted about seven acres; R. C. Dunn and Son planted nearly sixteen acres. Other farmers planting in the Brownfield-Hiram area include Harry Butterfield, fifteen acres; Roy Weymouth, ten acres; John LaFrance, five acres; Clarence Douglas, four acres and Hugh Hastings, three acres.

Tree planting in the burned area is a major operation. Competition from weed type trees such as gray birch must be met with rugged equipment.

The Oxford County soil conservation district operates a heavy wild land Lowther tree planter. The plan riding the machine is protected by a pine frame from falling limbs unrooted by a V-type blade. The V-type blade is mounted on a bulldozer, which clears a path and hauls the planter.

Lloyd Rowe, Soil Conservation Service Engineer, is assisting farmers in Oxford County this week. Cammack Brothers in Houghton have a serious stream bank erosion problem that Lloyd will look over. Norm Gray of Fryeburg has a land drainage and leveling problem that will be checked.

Conservation farm plans need to be revised and brought up to date. Changes in methods of farming and changes from cropland farming to grassland farming mean a different plan of operation.

Within the next two weeks, conservation farm plans will be revised with Batchelder Brothers of Rumford, Charles Hersey of North Waterford, Robert Grover, Bethel, and Lewis Bacon, Hiram.

New conservation farm plans will be developed with Clarence Constant of Hebron and Merritt Kimball, South Waterford.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

New Philadelphia, Ohio, Daily Times: "The communist world does a great deal of blatant advertising of its alleged charms for the masses of humanity.... In a recent CBS interview, Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin... said that every day 300 to 500 East Germans cross into West Berlin as refugees. Since 1950 the stream has mounted to more than million. If Communist lands are such a magnificent haven for humanity, why don't people stay? You'll never see the answer to that in the Kremlin's ads."

Norwalk, Conn., Hour: "The guiding spirit of the recovery, as the President sees it, is not a crash program by the government. Rather, the government is leading off with enough to encourage private enterprise. Business is there for those who believe in it and prepare for it. The recovery will be sounder and more lasting that way."

The Buttonville Cooks of Bethel held a meeting June 2, 1958, at the home of their leader, Mrs. Ethel Robertson. The President opened the meeting with God Bless America, Club Pledge, Flag Salute, Lord's Prayer. Our leader checked notebooks and had us sort them. Next week we are having a tour and picnic after it—Grace Haines, Club Reporter.

Brownie Troop 8 held their annual picnic Tuesday, June 3, at the Maine Wildlife Den at Bryant Pond. Mr. Whitman showed us around and told us interesting facts about each animal. We would like to thank Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Conner, Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Cookidge for furnishing transportation and our picnic lunch. Watch for more Brownie Troop 8 news in September.
